THE UNION

VOL. XX.—NO. 5982. PORTLAND, OREGON, THURSDAY, MAY 27, 1880.

GENERAL NEWS

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

Corner Stone Laid—Episcopal Council

OMAHA, May 26.—The corner stone of the new Trinity cathedral was laid this evening with imposing ceremonies conducted by Bishop Clarkson of Nebraska, Bishop Whipple of Minnesota, Bishop Spaulding of Colorado, Bishop Garret of Texas and Bishop Vail of Kansas. The annual council of the Episcopal church of Nebraska will meet here to-morrow and will be largely attended.

Disastrous Storm in Dakota

MITCHELL, May 26.—A cyclone passed through this place at about 4 P. M. to-day doing much damage to life and property. The killed are Jacob Imhol of New Alamakee, Iowa; Henry Smith of Blackberry station, Kane county, Illinois. Badly wounded: Fred Francis of Decorah, Iowa; Mr. Phillips of Kane county, Illinois; Franz Bodd. Injured: Wm. H. Moth of Columbia county, Wisconsin. Many buildings were blown down in this village, which contains 600 inhabitants. All buildings near town were blown to pieces. The extent of the damage outside of town is yet unknown.

Election of State Officials for Rhode Island.

PROVIDENCE, May 26.—The general assembly has elected A. H. Littlefield, governor, and H. H. Fay, lieutenant governor.

Delaware for Bayard.

DOVER, May 26.—The democratic state convention met to-day. Chas. B. Lore was made permanent chairman. Delegates to Cincinnati were chosen and a resolution passed instructing the delegation to vote for Senator Bayard for president, also one recommending the national convention to adhere to the two-thirds rule.

The proceedings were not once interrupted by objections or debate and lasted only about two hours. The delegation to Cincinnati it is believed will vote as a unit for Bayard, notwithstanding the fact that some of the members are personally antagonistic toward him.

Hatch's Indian Campaign.

SANTA FE, N. M., May 26.—Hatch reached Ojo Caliente Friday morning, where he was joined by his Indian scouts, who left Victoria's trail a few miles north. Hatch at once put scouts on the trail again, he having to wait a day or two for his exhausted command, which is nearly dismounted. Since leaving Mescalero Agency Hatch has marched over a thousand miles of mountainous country. Victoria and his men left large numbers of dead animals on their track. An Indian, recently killed, was shown to be a Comanche. Victoria must certainly have as large a force as Hatch. Every ranch but one in the vicinity of Teleosa has been cleared out by Apaches, who have murdered 78 whites since May.

Fire at Brooklyn, New York.

NEW YORK, May 26.—At about half past twelve o'clock this morning fire broke out in Denslow & Busses oil works, at Twenty-fifth street and Third avenue, Brooklyn. The flames spread rapidly and in about a quarter of an hour the oil tank exploded and is reported to have killed and wounded a number of men. The flames extended to several vessels and to Adams' lumber yards. The fire is still in progress and the loss will be heavy.

Strike of Miners at Leadville.

LEADVILLE, May 26.—Twenty-seven hundred miners struck to-day, demanding an advance from three to four dollars per day. They held a meeting and visited the mines, compelling other miners to quit work. Several mines have refused to accede to the demands. The arms of several military organizations are in the hands of strikers.

Died.

NEW YORK, May 26.—Francis W. G. Bellows, brother of Rev. Henry W. Bellows, died here Monday of pneumonia. At one time he was book keeper for the Pacific Mail Co. and afterward became its vice president, an office which he filled with ability. Subsequently he was vice president of the Panama Railroad Co.

Railroad and Steamship Compromise.

The annual meeting of the Pacific Mail Steamship Co. took place to-day. It is understood that all differences between the overland railroads and the Panama railroad have been settled, and that the election will be harmonious. The successful ticket will receive, it is said, about 140,000 share votes. The practical management of the company will be shared by the Union Pacific and the Panama Railroad Companies.

A Hot Day at New York.

The weather yesterday was intensely hot, the thermometer at 3 o'clock touching 94°. Several cases of sunstroke occurred, some fatal. Drought continues in this neighborhood.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

The Bulwer-Clayton Treaty.

LONDON, May 26.—In the house of commons, Sir Charles Dilke stated that the government was not in communication with the United States upon the question of abrogation of the Clayton-Bulwer treaty.

Will Promote Peace.

A private report says that Earl Granville told a parliamentary deputation that he would, at a favorable opportunity afforded, do his utmost to bring about mediation between South American belligerents.

French Affairs.

PARIS, May 25.—The government has resolved to banish foreign socialists, who are most active in promoting agitation.

Election.

PARIS, May 26.—Leon Say has been elected president of the senate, receiving 147 votes; Leroyer 4, Pallet 25, Simon 1 and Deganard 1. There were 121 blank ballots.

Russia's Policy in case of War with China.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 26.—The manufacture of torpedoes for conveyance to Vladivostock has recently been much accelerated. It is believed that it has been decided in the event of a rupture with China to act as much as possible on the defensive. A Russian fleet would not blockade any Chinese ports which trade with Europe, but would confine itself chiefly to the waters between Japan and the east of trans-Amoor districts, and thus prevent Japan from aiding China.

Nihilist Trials.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 26.—The nihilist trial was concluded by the members of the court martial after 11 hours deliberation this morning. They sentenced Michaeloff and Saburoff to hang, Dr. Weimar to 15 years' hard labor in the mines, Lostchansky 20 years, Berdnikoff 8 years, Lowenthal 10 years and three women to 15 years. The women Malinowska and Boyonoff are banished to Siberia. The sentences must be confirmed by Melikoff.

PACIFIC COAST MATTERS.

Senator Farley Appointed on the Commerce Committee—Measures Defeated.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—Senator Farley was to-day made a member of the committee on commerce to fill a vacancy caused by Gen. Gordon's retirement and Gen. Ransom's promotion to the chairmanship. A position on this committee is considered very desirable, and Farley's appointment to it is not only a notable compliment to him on the part of his democratic colleagues, but is likely to prove decidedly advantageous to Pacific coast interests. The committee at his instance to-day agreed to insert in the river and harbor appropriation bill an item of $10,000 for completing the improvement of Wilmington harbor, and to increase the house item for the Sacramento river from $30,000 to $40,000.

Defeated Measures.

Horace Davis to-day made a strong effort to obtain an appropriation of $30,000 to reimburse the city of San Francisco for street improvements in front of federal property, which he proposed as an amendment to the sundry civil bill, but Blount of Georgia, in charge of the bill, insisted on having it ruled out on a point of order.

Berry also to-day made an earnest effort to secure the adoption of his amendments which allowed or provide for various improvements at the Benicia arsenal and increase the amount for the Mare Island dry dock, but the majority under the lead of Blount and other members of the committee on appropriations defeated all of them.

CANADA.

Money Order Service between the United States and Canada.

OTTAWA, May 26.—A convention has been arranged between the United States and Canada for cheap money orders.

THE CHICAGO CONVENTION

The Grant Programme—How Cameron Proposes to Run the Convention.

NEW YORK, May 26.—The Tribune has the following Washington special of the 25th: It is known who the Grant leaders have arranged the following plan for the control of the Chicago convention. Of course Senator Cameron when he calls the convention together will be obliged to nominate for temporary chairman whomsoever the national committee elects, but it will be arranged to have one leading Grant man for the place. On that there will have to be a vote by the convention and an attempt will be made to enforce the unit rule when the vote is taken. Of course some delegates from Pennsylvania, New York and other states will insist on voting differently from the majority of the delegations from these states, but Cameron, who will be in the chair, will decide that the unit rule is binding upon all delegates representing states in which it was adopted. If the anti-third term men appeal from this decision and a vote is taken upon the appeal, Cameron will decide again that the unit rule must be enforced in this vote also. The Grant men are talking about this programme very freely to-day and assert with the greatest apparent confidence that by the help of Cameron and the unit rule they will not only get a temporary chairman, but also when it comes to the choice of permanent chairman him likewise by the same kind of tactics. Of course Blaine's most ardent friends and those who will manage his case in Chicago know all about this scheme and are making preparations to checkmate Cameron and his followers.

CHICAGO, May 26.—Prominent republican politicians continue to come to this city in anticipation of the convention. Among the late arrivals are W. P. Frye, Don Cameron, Eugene Hale, Gen. McGee, L. F. Morrow, Gen. Kane, Powell Clayton, Senator Finch of Indiana, and Wm. E. Chandler. The sub-committee of the national executive committee to-day took full charge of the exposition building. They are all Grant men.

Gen. Butler Denies that He is Working in Grant's Interests—His Views.

CHEYENNE, May 26.—The following from an interview with Gen. B. F. Butler, who is in this city to-day en route to the Pacific coast, will appear in the Leader of Thursday:

Question—You do not contemplate supporting Grant at all, general?

Answer—Why, certainly not, my dear sir; the idea is most preposterous.

Q—It looks now, general, as if the national greenback convention will nominate you for the presidency.

A—Well, if they only give us a good platform the honor would be most worthy.

Q—You would of course accept the nomination?

A—I never decline anything in advance.

Q—What do you think of the outcome of the republican and democratic conventions?

A—Well, I think that Gen. Grant and Mr. Tilden will be nominated, and Grant will prove to be the stronger man before the public.

Thurlow Weed en route to Chicago.

CHICAGO, May 26.—Thurlow Weed left New York for Chicago yesterday. He will travel by easy stages and intends if his health permits to present to the national convention a set of resolutions protesting against the nomination of Grant.

Colorado for Grant.

DENVER, May 25.—The republican state convention met here this morning and was called to order by Ex-Gov. Routt, chairman of the state central committee. Col. John Cleghorn, a Grant man, was made temporary chairman. Pending a motion to appoint a committee on credentials, a delegate from Chaffee county offered the following:

WHEREAS, A republican caucus was in session last night for the purpose of determining the work in to-day's convention; and

WHEREAS, We eighty-one delegates to this convention, representing republican counties which cast in 1878, 1700 of the 2700 majority received by the republican candidate for governor, were not only not invited to said caucus, but absolutely excluded therefrom on application for admission, simply because no pronouncing a regular password never before required at a republican caucus; therefore we protest against said action, which completely stifles the voice of the strongest republican counties of the state and renders the presence of their representatives a mockery and a farce. We protest against it because it is contrary to the practices of the republican party of Colorado and the country, and because it is unfair and tyrannical and hence unrepublican in its spirit. We have met in this convention as friends to fight a common foe, not each other, hence we deny the right of any section of the party to take any secret action which treats us as a foe and unworthy a share in the proceedings in the convention, though representing, as we believe, the sentiment of an active majority of the republican voters of the state.

The resolutions were not entertained, and a motion to appoint a committee on credentials agreed to, and a committee largely composed of Grant delegates was appointed. The convention then took a recess until 2 P. M. It seems probable that a solid Grant delegation will be chosen to the national convention.

AN INTERESTING CASE.

The Poncas Sue for their Old Reservation given by the Government to the Sioux.

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

OMAHA, May 26.—The fact was made public here to-day that two suits have been commenced in the U. S. courts of Nebraska, and three suits in the U. S. courts of Dakota, to settle the title to the old Ponca Indian reservation, which lies partly in Nebraska and partly in Dakota. These suits are against the Sioux nation, the Poncas being plaintiffs. They would have been begun several months ago, but owing to the difficulty of obtaining service on Spotted Tail and Red Cloud, the matter has been delayed until the present. News was received here this morning that Red Cloud, Spotted Tail and other Sioux chiefs, while coming down the Missouri river on their way to Washington, were properly served with summons both in Nebraska and Dakota. They had long ago promised to come off their reservation themselves to some proper place to be served with notice, as they are willing to allow the Poncas to try to recover their reservation. But they were prevented by watchful government officials, who were acting no doubt under instructions from Secretary Schurz. These suits are based upon the fact that the treaty between the government and the Poncas vested the title absolutely in the Poncas, and that the subsequent treaty giving these lands to the Sioux has no validity. This litigation will determine the legal status of the Indians, whether they can sue and be sued in state and federal courts, and the result will be awaited with a great deal of interest. The management of these suits, as well as all other Ponca litigation, are in the hands of Hon. A. J. Poppleton and Hon. J. L. Webster, who do the work gratuitously, the expense of the litigation will be paid out of the Ponca fund now in the hands of a committee of Omaha gentlemen.

WASHINGTON CITY

The Agricultural Department.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—The senate appropriation committee authorizes an amendment to the agricultural appropriation bill of $10,000 for machinery, etc., to experiment in the manufacture of sugar from sorghum, cornstalks, etc., also increasing the salary of the commissioner from $3000 to $4000.

The Sundry Bill.

The sundry civil appropriation bill was [illegible]. All items for public buildings were [illegible] as reported, and all amendments to new buildings ruled out on points of order.

Hanlan Wins Again.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—Hanlan won the boat race easily in about 30 minutes. Riley was three minutes behind.

PROCLAMATION BY THE GOVERNOR.

EXECUTIVE OFFICE,
SALEM, Oregon, May 17, 1880.

Whereas, a vacancy has occurred in the office of senator in the First Senatorial District, composed of Marion county, by the resignation of [illegible], senator for said District; and

Whereas, a vacancy has occurred in the office of senator in the [illegible] Senatorial District, composed of [illegible] county, by the resignation of John Burnett, senator for said district; and

Whereas, a vacancy having occurred in the office of State Printer by the death of W. B. Carter;

I, W. W. Thayer, Governor of Oregon, do hereby designate and appoint the first Monday in June as the time to fill said vacancies respectively by election, and that the general election appointed by law to be held on that day shall be deemed a special election for the purpose of filling said vacancies.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of State to be affixed.

W. W. THAYER, Governor of Oregon.

By the Governor:
F. P. EARHART, Secretary of State.

PACIFIC COAST NEWS.

CALIFORNIA.

The Kalloch Case in Court.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 26.—In the Kalloch impeachment case [illegible] of Bales for the prosecution followed C. W. High on contending that the superior court had jurisdiction in the case, formerly held by the district court, and that sections 15 and 18 [illegible] relative to the impeachment of officials included the mayor within their provisions, which was traversed by counsel for the defense. The court decided that it had jurisdiction in the case, but in regard to the statutes concerning impeachment above referred to concluded to hear further argument, which will be resumed to-morrow.

A Substantial Endorsement.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 25.—A special meeting of the chamber of commerce was held to-day to express an opinion on the present management of the San Francisco mint. President Babcock called attention to the correspondence between Congressman Page and H. L. Dodge, superintendent of the mint, recently published, and expressed the opinion that an attempt was being made to injure Mr. Dodge in Washington because he would not meet all the demands of a congressman. Resolutions were unanimously adopted expressing confidence in the conduct of the mint by Mr. Dodge, and holding that as he is responsible for its management he should be allowed the selection of his subordinates and employees, subject to the approval of his superiors; that the assumed right on the part of senators and representatives in congress to dictate and control administrative appointments in the various departments of the government is corrupting in its tendency, has no warrant in the constitution, and should be resisted by the executive department of the government and frowned upon by the people.

Races.

On the second day of the spring meeting of the Pacific Blood Horse Association the first event was a three quarter mile dash won by Lexington, time 1:15½. Mile and a half dash won by Tillie C., time 2:13¾. Two and one quarter mile dash for the Pacific cup and $1000 won by Neapolitan, beating Lena Dunbar and Clara D. in 4:03. One mile and five-eighths dash, won by James Snowden, time 3:06¼.

Deliberate Suicide.

Cornelius Sheehan, a native of Ireland, 38 years of age, died at 1117 Folsom street this morning from the effects of poison taken yesterday afternoon with suicidal intent. Deceased was sheriff's keeper during ex-Sheriff Nunan's term, and since his retirement from office he has been out of employment and money. A letter found in his pocketbook states that he was about to commit suicide. He had frequently threatened to take his own life, and after swallowing the drug he said to a friend: "I have made a good job of it this time."

The Santa Cruz Disaster.

SANTA CRUZ, May 26.—After the funeral procession had made their journey the stores about town reopened and the streets somewhat recovered from the appearance of melancholy. The body of the man who bore written on his shirt the name "A. W. Hawkins" has been identified as that of Walter Hoyt, a clerk employed by Davis Bros., of 419 Kearny street.

Suicide.

ALTA, May 26.—A man named P. J. Barley shot himself dead this morning at Banyard's Hotel.

Trouble between the Maryland and University Mining Companies.

BODIE, May 26.—Last night the west crosscut on the 500-foot level of the University mine made connection with the east crosscut from the Maryland Con. The University men at once compelled the Maryland men to go to the surface and took possession of the crosscut as well as of certain drifts or ledges from the crosscut. A bulkhead was put in the crosscut close to the Maryland shaft. The Maryland people allege that the University men were armed with shotguns, which is strenuously denied upon the part of the latter. Colonel A. C. Dunn, president of the Maryland, now here, says that there are three valuable ledges in the crosscut which are the property of his company. The University, on the other hand, claims the ground up to the point where they have placed their bulkhead. The miners' union having heretofore announced that shotguns shall not be permitted in the district, have called a meeting for 1 o'clock to-morrow, to take the matter into consideration. The affair has caused little or no excitement.

WASHINGTON TERRITORY

Fire at Walla Walla—The Murderers.

WALLA WALLA, May 26.—The fire last night totally destroyed the slaughter house and hay owned by Chris Bunis, supposed incendiary. Loss $2500.

John Justice arrived here last night with the alleged Brumfield murderers and was met at the railroad station by an immense crowd, who were fortunately good natured.

Warm weather and grain growing finely.

SOUTH AMERICA.

Peruvian Success.

LIMA, May 26.—The Peruvians have recaptured Moquegua and Arequipa, and their forces are marching south. Callao was bombarded on the 10th inst. without effect.

THE NORTHWEST.

Eastern Oregon.

It is reported in Union that Foster, Reeves & Co. have lost 500 head of cattle in the snow.

The foothills road between LaGrande and Union is almost impassable. Last Sunday the stage from the east mired down, and in trying to get it out the pole was broken, and mail and passengers had to finish the trip in a lumber wagon.

Eastern Oregon Republican: A band of cattle belonging to Messrs. Lang & Ryan, consisting of 1700 head, passed through Union Thursday. The cattle looked in fair condition considering the road they had just come over. The drovers report three feet of snow in the mountains and that they lost about twenty-five head of stock while crossing. This is the first band of the season that has passed through here on the road east.

Western Oregon.

Members of Dashaway and Capital lodges, I. O. G. T., Salem, have chartered an excursion wagon and will go picnicking to the country on Saturday.

J. T. Raimey, of Jackson county, has just sheared his band of sheep, obtaining 6000 lbs. of wool from about 1400 head. He has been quite fortunate during the winter, losing only a small percentage.

Eastern Washington.

Thorp's new mill at the mouth of the Natchess has commenced operation.

About $175 has been raised by subscription for material for a new schoolhouse in Yakima City.

There is not a house to rent in [illegible]. Several new comers have been obliged to make shift [illegible] more pleasant [illegible].

Sixteen teams laden with merchandise arrived at Yakima City from The Dalles during the week, exclusive of the freight going to points in the Kittitass valley [illegible].

Columbia Chronicle: Dayton is going to have a fine schoolhouse, has fine prospects for a railroad, and now why not work up the question of a good fire engine. We need one, and the moment it [illegible].

Idaho.

Lewiston wants a woolen mill.

Snow fell last week on Craig's mountain.

There is still much snow in [illegible].

Colonel Staten of Utah is buying cattle in Idaho. He will drive about 1000 head to Cheyenne this season.

A new flouring mill will shortly be constructed near the mouth of Alpowa creek by Messrs. Sillicot & White.

Sheep shearing in the vicinity of Lewiston has been greatly delayed by the cold weather, but the wool clip is being rapidly harvested now.

The Brearley mill at Lewiston has suspended grinding till after the water of the Snake goes down. They have about two months' grinding on hand, and then about 100 Chinamen will be employed to enlarge the ditch.

TWO WONDERFUL LAKES,

WHOSE WATERS WILL CURE RHEUMATISM

More about the Bunch Grass Country along the Northern Pacific, etc., etc.

[FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT FOR THE OREGONIAN.]

SPOKAN FALLS, W. T., May 13.

Of the land lying on either side of the Northern Pacific railroad from here to Spokan Falls, within a hauling distance of the road—say thirty-five miles—about 80 per cent is tillable and wooded; the remainder is in canyons or is rocky and [illegible]. The great coulees, Washtucna, [illegible] and Providence, through which the railroad passes, are nothing more than the beds of rivers that existed in prehistoric days and are now dry. Many narrow coulees, the former tributaries, run into the greater coulee, and these in turn must have found outlet in the Snake and Columbia rivers. The walls of the coulees are solid basalt rock, which evidently cooled when the volcanic rivers of molten rocks and minerals came down the old river beds. These rocky walls have assumed all manner of shapes and vary from gently sloping inclines to rugged weird irregular bluffs, which vie in majesty with the famous cliffs bordering the upper Columbia. The whole country furnishes an unlimited, interesting and fruitful field for geological study.

From the top of these walls plateaus run back for miles and miles, and it is here that the good land commences. The twenty per cent of untillable land is quite as good for grazing as the tillable land, and the rocks furnish a protection for cattle, sheep and horses during snowstorms not to be obtained in a rolling or hilly country.

This country has one natural advantage which will tend to develop it very fast, and to cause a larger area than usual in new countries to be sown in grain. It has natural roads. The soil is of such a nature that roads are never muddy more than three months in the year, and even during those three months two horses can make good time with a ton of freight. There are no steep hills to climb, and a little work on side hills will make good roads in any direction they may be wanted. About Ritzville and up to Big Lake the cost of building roads will be so trifling that they will not be taken into consideration when farms are located. We had a two horse team and drove for fifteen miles over the plat, and without once seeing a road, and did not at any time have to deviate more than one or two hundred feet from the general direction taken to get through to Crab creek. The land being slightly rolling, although not having so much ground to the acre, will be much easier to cultivate than hills.

Some Wonderful Lakes.

In township 24 north, ranges 40 and 41 east, about two miles west of Silver lake and sixteen miles southwest of Spokan Falls, are two lakes, the healing power of whose waters will be hailed with joy by certain classes of invalids, and which will materially cut down the fees of physicians in that neighborhood. They are known as the medical lakes. They are surrounded by decomposed granite, the feldspar and mica remaining intact and the hornblende and silex being dissolved. The waters are a sure cure for rheumatism and kindred diseases. This statement sounds very much like the opening sentence of a patent medicine advertisement, but facts justify the statement and experience so far has proved that it is true. The cure of Mr. Andrew Lefevre, who lives here, was the first to discover the waters' merits, is almost miraculous. He has had inflammatory rheumatism in his right arm for years. It was bent at right angles and had become stiff. The elbow joint was swollen to three times its normal size. Consequent imperfect circulation had caused partial paralysis; the fingers had become stiff, the arm had wasted away and was worse than useless. He had not heard of the now famous qualities of the water. He owned a ranch near the lake, and passing by the shores one evening, bathed the arm to moisten the skin, which was dry and shriveled. The next morning he was able to move his finger joints slightly. He commenced bathing twice a day, each time observing an improvement, and at the end of three weeks was entirely cured. That was about two years ago. Circulation was restored, the arm recovered its strength and size, and Mr. Lefevre now does a day's chopping or plowing without the least pain or inconvenience.

This story was told me by Mr. Lefevre, and is true in every particular. Half a hundred other cures within two years, none, however, so remarkable as the one just mentioned, only because the cases were not so bad, confirm the claim that the waters are a sure remedy for rheumatism.

Following are analyses of one gallon of water from each lake, which was sent to Mr. W. S. Ladd, of Portland. The analyses are by Dr. R. G. Rex.

GRANITE LAKE.

One gallon contains solid matter 256 grains.
Carbonate of soda and potassa 130 grains.
Chloride of sodium and potassium 61 grains.
Organic matter, silica, alkaline sulphates, etc., 32 grains.

MEDICAL LAKE.

One gallon contains solid matter 192 grains.
Carbonate of soda and potassa 120 grains.
Chloride of sodium and potassium 48 grains.
Organic matter, silica, alkaline sulphates, etc., 24 grains.

One lake is a mile and three-quarters long and three-quarters of a mile wide, the other a little smaller. They are situated about a mile apart. For ordinary bathing they are delightful. The water invigorates and refreshes the whole system and leaves the skin as soft and oily as the finest kid. Chapped skin and slight abrasions are cured with one ablution. For shampooing the water is the finest lather, and cleanses the scalp so artistically that a barber's bottled preparation would be put to shame to behold the operation. And it leaves the hair, instead of like the quills of the fretful porcupine, as though the finest nut oil had been thoroughly applied. The lakes will ruin the sale of soap in the entire neighborhood. Clothes grease stained and tar soaked can be cleaned with slight rubbing in this water. A laundry like with a Portland bill of prices and no opposition would be better than a gold mine!

A town called Medical Lake, upon several miles from the line of the railroad, has been surveyed, and already twenty houses have been built this spring. A hotel containing 30 rooms is receiving finishing touches and will be opened soon by a gentleman from Michigan. A bath house at the edge of the lake, about 100 yards from the hotel, has been built, and others will be erected as soon as the carpenters busy on new houses in the town can find time. I predict that Medical Lake will be to the Pacific northwest what the Hot Springs of Arkansas are to the Mississippi valley.

Between the two medical lakes is a ridge [illegible] of pure granite [illegible] probably one hundred [illegible] will make the finest kind of building stone. In the [illegible] there are [illegible] some and [illegible]. There are [illegible] are surrounded [illegible].

THE PIONEER REUNION

BUTTEVILLE, May 20, 1880.
[TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN.]

The [illegible] annual reunion [illegible] of the [illegible] on which the disputed national title of the territory of Oregon was decided in favor of the United States. Pioneer Day was instituted by the pioneers as an Oregon holiday, with the intention of its being more especially devoted to the social reunion of the men and women who were the young people of the Pacific Northwest a third of a century ago. This social reunion also offers to their children and friends who are not members of the association an opportunity to participate in all the enjoyments of the day and evening. While many of the older people take a lively interest, as they should, in the greeting of the grand annual ball, which is always conducted in a manner becoming the occasion, yet this feature of the reunion is intended more especially for the enjoyment of our young people. The proceeds realized from this entertainment with the annual membership dues are the sources from which the funds are derived to meet the yearly expenses necessarily incurred. This year, through the generosity of friends at Portland in furnishing music for the occasion day and evening free of charge, a favor never before extended to the pioneers, will to that amount assist in forwarding the objects of the association, collecting historical papers and relics, photographing and enlarging the association's annual publication, all of which, with the banner, flags, etc., belonging to the association, are carefully kept at Pioneer Headquarters in the state house at Salem.

There are still living in Oregon and Washington territory quite a number of men and women who have lighted the camp fire upon the ground now occupied by the city of Portland, before the primitive forest (a very beautiful one) had been disturbed by the hand of civilization. When the writer first landed on the site of the future city, late in the fall of 1844, the land was divided between two bachelors. One of them, Overton, was a reckless visionary fellow from the southwest, who the following year sold his claim to Frank W. Pettygrove, the original proprietor of Portland. The other was, I believe, a Newburyport man, mate of one of the Cushing vessels, by the name of Lunt. He claimed a small house which stood on the river bank, built at the instance of Capt. Couch, and occasionally used in connection with his shipping business. At that day there was no trail leading to this point, which was only accessible by water.

Now it is very desirable that all of our old pioneers, who can possibly do so, will be present at the ensuing reunion. Then, after the exchange of hearty salutations among life-long friends, take a good look at our prosperous young city, which many of you have not seen for twenty years. The pioneers have many good reasons to be proud of the part which they have contributed toward her present prosperity, and I may say magnificence. We all well remember the privations and hardships which we endured in this country but a few years ago—when the red man roamed at will in the enjoyment of his wild freedom through all this land of the west—when the curling smoke of his wigwam and Chinook canoe were everywhere to be seen along these western waters; but of all those countless generations that have passed from hence, scarcely an evidence or memento of their former existence have they left in the land where they flourished and died. How marked the contrast between that wild uncultured people who for unnumbered ages inhabited this country, and their pioneer successors who came and reclaimed the wilderness for civilization. "The land where rolls the Oregon,"—founded a government based upon the just principles of perfect civil and religious liberty. The remnant of her pioneers are now engaged in gathering together historical sketches of the early settlers and settlement of this North Pacific coast, which, unlike the works and traditions of the aboriginal tribes who so long possessed this land, will survive when memories perish and monuments decay.

The old settlers who were so long an isolated people upon these western shores are better prepared to appreciate the conveniences and great advantages now being enjoyed in Oregon and Washington than are the younger people of to-day, who know but little of the long years of hard labor required in reaching the present development of their resources.

That Portland in her location is favored with advantages that must at no distant day make her a great city has long been apparent to the observing mind. The unsurpassed natural resources and productive wealth of the vast country whose trade naturally converges here offers to Portland relatively the same combination of advantages through agriculture, manufactures and commerce that have built up the great city of Philadelphia on the Atlantic side of the continent.

Once her contemplated railroad systems shall have been completed, nothing in the ordinary course of events can divert her trade or seriously retard her assured growth and prosperity. Suffering as she has through unjust misrepresentation from abroad, the short-sighted illiberal exactions at home upon shipping entering our waters, yet notwithstanding these discouragements this youthful queen of the Northwest, like a valiant competitor, has leaped into the arena of foreign commerce as suddenly, and quite as startling to her great California rival, as were the events to the outside world then taking place in the days of '49.

Portland is eminently the city founded, and, through the critical period of her early years, fostered by the pioneers. It is pretty certain that the ensuing decade will bring forward events of most important and lasting interest to the commerce of the chief city of the Pacific Northwest. Portland can well afford to pursue a policy characterized by broad, liberal views, offering to her domestic and foreign commerce such facilities as those vital interests and her good name should demand—permit nothing to prevent the consummation of her artificial lines of communication or obstruct her natural channels of trade.

Col. J. W. Nesmith, than whom no man on the coast is better qualified or has taken a more prominent part in making our past history, having lived more than 33 years in Oregon, will deliver the annual address.

We want all the pioneers and their friends to be present and hear him; we cordially invite you to come up from the sunset gate of the grand old river, to the west, from the east, the north and south. He will regale you with some memories of your youthful years [illegible] your triumphs over the now seemingly insuperable difficulties that converted the wilderness into one of the most desirable countries on the globe.

THURSDAY MORNING, MAY 27, 1880

HON. E. B. WATSON.

The people are interested in being thoroughly acquainted with those for whom their votes are asked. Though Hon. E. B. Watson, candidate for supreme judge is well known in the southern part of the state, he has always had business at home and has spent less time in devotion to politics than to his profession. He has followed the plan so much recommended by common sense of minding his own business. But from reliable sources, without having ever spoken to Judge Watson himself, we have learned the following of his history: He was born in Clayton county, Iowa, in 1845, and is therefore thirty-five years of age. He crossed the plains in 1853, and settled in Umpqua valley. He was educated at Pacific University, in Washington county, where he graduated with the highest honors in his class. After graduating he studied law and was admitted to the bar by the supreme court of Oregon in 1868. He then located in Jacksonville, where he has resided and practiced his profession ever since. His industry, learning and fidelity, as well as his social qualities, won him friends and clients, and gave him a lucrative practice. In 1872, notwithstanding the fact that the democratic party was largely in the ascendency, he was nominated by the republicans for county judge of Jackson county, and was elected by over two hundred majority. He served the term of four years and declined a renomination.

In 1878, the republican party being particularly desirous of electing the clerk of Jackson county, Judge Watson was prevailed upon to take the nomination for that position, and was elected by nearly two hundred majority, though Thomas G. Reames, the democratic candidate for secretary of state, carried the county at the same election by about four hundred. Though not a politician in the modern meaning of that term, he has always been a republican. The fact of his having been twice elected to office in the democratic county of Jackson, is the very best evidence of his personal popularity. Having practiced for ten years, and industriously applied himself to finding out the reason of the law, he possesses all the knowledge requisite to enable him to render decisions and deliver opinions that would do credit to our ablest jurists. No one has ever questioned his integrity, and one thing may always be depended upon in Judge Watson: he is conscientiously honest, and his decisions will never be influenced by any consideration except that of a sincere desire to do right. This qualification should be the highest recommendation that could be given a judge of the supreme court. Firm, honest, dignified, learned in the law, he will restore to the bench that lustre which has of late years grown dim through the shortcomings of some who have occupied that high position. Some raise an objection to him because he has been clerk of Jackson county. To answer this suffice it to say that the brightest ornament that ever adorned the judiciary of Oregon was Hon. Joseph G. Wilson, who at one step went from the position of clerk to that of judge of the supreme court. That the late George B. Helm was a brilliant lawyer none will deny; yet he did not regard it as derogatory to his dignity to serve as clerk of Linn county, giving up a lucrative practice for that purpose. A clerk's office is a good school for attorneys, and if every one could have the benefit of a term in that school there would be fewer poor lawyers in the country.

Some papers and politicians, unable to find any good reason for opposing the republican candidates for justices of the supreme court, object to them on account of their age. Watson is the youngest of the three, and was admitted to the bar twelve years ago. Chief Justice Story, whose fame is as widespread as civilization itself, had been admitted to the bar only eleven years, and was three years younger than Judge Watson now is when President Madison appointed him justice of the supreme court of the United States. Scores of such references might be made, but it is only necessary to state the historical fact that nearly every judge of any distinction entered the service before arriving at middle age.

MATTERS OF RECORD.

Some records have been drawn on Mr. George, made while he was a member of the state senate, but it has been found that in every case he voted in the interests of the people, and no charge of jobbery or trickery has been laid at his door. Is Whiteaker's record equally good? At the session of 1878 a strenuous effort was made by Representative Thompson of this county to secure the passage of a bill for an act to provide for pilotage and towage on the Columbia and Willamette rivers. The bill contains no feature that was objected to by anybody except those who were directly interested in maintaining the present system, so injurious to the commercial interests of this state. It passed the house by a vote of 48 to 7, and came up in the senate on the 15th of October. On the motion to suspend the rules and read the bill a first time the vote stood 7 to 9, all the Multnomah senators voting in favor and Mr. Whiteaker voting against suspension of the rules. Had the motion to suspend the rules prevailed, as it would had Mr. Whiteaker voted for it, the bill would have made such progress that its ultimate passage would have been highly probable, as the arguments in favor of the bill were unanswerable. The vote of Mr. Whiteaker would have given the motion to suspend the rules the requisite two-thirds. But on this question, as with reference to every phase in which the famous lock and dam swindle bill was presented, Mr. Whiteaker voted in favor of the monopoly and against the interests of the people at large. The senate journal for 1878, page 386, contains the record of the vote, which shows that Hon. John Burnett, democratic candidate for supreme judge, voted with Mr. Whiteaker and in favor of the present oppressive system of pilotage, which is a tax upon every article of merchandise which passes up or down the river.

A somewhat warm fight was made, it is true, over the nomination for county clerk, in the convention on Tuesday. No three better men have ever been up for office in Multnomah county. Either one of the three would make a good clerk and either would have been elected. Mr. Borthwick, the successful aspirant, has no superior in point of capacity, honesty or courteousness, and he will prove an acceptable occupant of the place.

The name of Hon. Penumbra Kelly, who acceptably served this county in the last legislature, has been placed on the republican ticket in the place vacated by the resignation of Dr. Chapman, whose business is such as to preclude his acceptance. Mr. Kelly will make an active and useful member of the house of representatives.

Had the probable candidate of the democrats for sheriff not held office any more than Buchtel has, "poor Ben" would be quite as appropriate as "poor Jo." Buchtel it is true may be poor, but he has not lived on office for the last fifteen years of his life, as has the man who will be his opponent.

The failure to blackmail the republican candidates yesterday resulted in an attack on them in a little scurrilous sheet in this city, which will only tend to make them friends and to render the blackmailer still more contemptible in the eyes of decent people.

An intimate friend of Hon. John M. Gearin states that Mr. Gearin will not under any circumstances be a candidate for state senator. We are glad of it, for Johnny is a good citizen and we would not like to see him slaughtered.

The number of men in the democratic party who express a purpose not to support Bellinger is such that we begin to think that he will be the worst beaten in a lot of badly beaten democrats.

Unrestricted Cramming.

[From the San Francisco Bulletin.]

It is an open question with many intelligent educators as to whether we have not too many text-books altogether in the public schools. Under the existing rule the cost of books is a burden to a great many people who have too much pride to appear on the list of "indigents." The children are also overloaded with books and overtaxed with studies. The process of intelligent teaching has become one of unrestricted cramming. The schoolroom is drifting rapidly into a recitation room. The real work of teaching and study is done at home, during hours when the child or youth ought to be engaged in play or some healthy physical exercise, and free from mental strain. It might result in less brilliant graduations, but there would be fewer youthful mental and physical wrecks. The public educator who will devise a system of public education which shall dispense with a large portion of the text-books in use will be a public benefactor.

Congress in Presidential Years.

[From the Sunday Herald.]

There is a good deal of talk about an early adjournment of congress, but it needs only a superficial glance at the important business before the two houses to show that an early adjournment is not probable. Looking back at the years of presidential elections we find that the session has always run into June and generally later. The following are the dates: 1832, July 16; 1836, July 4; 1840, July 21; 1844, June 17; 1848, August 14; 1852, August 31; 1856, August 18 and August 30; 1860, June 25; 1864, July 4; 1868, July 27; 1872, June 10; 1876, August 15.

CITY.

— His excellency Gov Thayer has recently granted the following commutations of sentences May 18 1880 Paul Dean convicted of larceny from Multnomah county and sentenced June 15 to one year's imprisonment. Reason assigned extra service and term of sentence be nearly expired May 1 1880 James convicted of larceny from Multnomah county and sentenced June 18 1879 to one year's imprisonment Reason assigned extra services and term of sentence being nearly expired May 1880 George Thorne convicted of robbery from Multnomah county and sentenced June 29 1877 to five years imprisonment. Reason assigned prisoner was convicted of trifling offence and has been satisfactory evidence of reformation May 1880 E. Lascelles convicted of having attempted to obtain money under false pretenses and sentenced from Douglas county May — 1880 for a term of one year Reason assigned statement of district judge before whom Lascelles was tried that prisoner was not sufficiently sane to be the subject of criminal punishment also on petition signed by prosecuting witness three jurors and others. May 1 1880 Robert Williams of Multnomah crime larceny sentenced one year from July 1879 Reason extra service and term of sentence being about expired May 1880 from Multnomah county crime larceny sentence one year from July 1879 Reason extra service and term of sentence having nearly expired.

DECORATION DAY AT VANCOUVER.—Decoration day will be observed at Vancouver on Monday May 31st Arrangements are being made for a good military and civic display An excursion steamer from Salem Oregon City and Portland is expected to arrive at 11 o'clock A M The procession will form at the wharf promptly at that hour and march through Main and Tenth streets to the cemetery where will be music by the 21st infantry band, and addresses by Gen Howard and Messrs. Bootofield Smalwood and others A general invitation to attend is extended to the people all over Oregon and Washington territory and with good weather a pleasant time may be anticipated without fear of disappointment.

SHOOTING AFFRAY IN EAST PORTLAND.—Yesterday evening about o'clock a shooting affray took place in Stephens addition East Portland between a man named Manning and Cormack. Both parties reside in Stephens addition and have farm lands. These persons had some difference which led to hot words During the altercation Cormack drew a pistol and fired two shots at Manning. The first missed aim but the second shot took effect in the shoulder inflicting a painful but not dangerous wound Immediately after the shooting Cormack mounted a horse and left for the country

MR. WITHERELL'S STATEMENT Mr A W Witherell, chairman of the republican county central committee desires us to state that an error occurred in the account published in the papers of the proceedings of the county convention He states that the name of Mr W S Newbury was placed in nomination for temporary chairman of the convention before he called that body to order that the name of Mr Newbury was not mentioned after the convention was called to order for that position. We give Mr Witherell the benefit of his statement.

IMPROVING FRONT STREET —Yesterday morning a force of men began work on Front street They immediately began to tear up the old, worn out and broken Nicholson blocks from above Pine street. These were thrown into the neighboring yards and taken into the buildings where they will be used as fire wood When the street is cleared of the remnant of the Nicholson blocks Mr Tidery will proceed at once to the laying of the Belgian block pavement

DECLINATION—APPOINTMENT —Owing to press of professional duties J. A. Chapman who was nominated by the republican county convention as one of the legislative candidates, has declined to serve. The county committee for Multnomah consisting of T. A. Jordan, A. W. Witherell and J. Sanders have appointed Hon Penumbra Kelly as the candidate of the republican party in Multnomah county for representative, in place of Dr Chapman.

INCORPORATED.—The following articles of incorporation have recently been filed in the office of the secretary of state at Salem Junction City Warehouse Company, duration five years pursuit, erecting building and conducting storage commission, shipping buying and selling of wheat. Capital stock $1000. Incorporators, J O Jennings, J Crow E M Eccleston

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY CONVENTION —The democratic county convention for Multnomah will convene at the court house to day at 10 o'clock A M The object of the convention is to nominate a full county and legislative ticket, and to transact such other business as may properly come before that body

COMING UP.—Still the Willamette continues to rise slowly up its banks, and there seems every reason to predict very high water At present the government gauge at the foot of Stark street indicates that the water is a fraction over 18 feet above extreme low watermark

DECORATION DAY —Flowers are needed by Geo Wright Post, G A R for decoration day, contributions of same will be called for on Saturday if parties having them will give their address to any of the letter carriers or if more convenient, to Com Pierce at post office.

NOTARIES PUBLIC.—Gov Thayer has recently appointed the following notaries public J B Condon, the Dalles J. W Hamaker, Linkville Geo. Ball, Alber Union county and F X Eldridge Gervais, Marion county

U. S. DISTRICT COURT.—Judge Deady will announce a decision this morning in this court in the Oregon Iron Works upon the application to sell the property of the bankrupt.

DEAD —Judge E C Bronaugh received a telegram yesterday announcing the death of his only brother, in Little Rock Arkansas.

AMUSEMENTS

HUBNER CONCERT —To morrow evening Prof Hubner leader of the 21st regimental band assisted by the members of the band and several favorite amateurs of Portland will give a grand vocal and instrumental concert at New Market theater One of the most refined and attractive programmes of the season will be presented. Prof. Hubner who is a very fine performer will during the evening render several solos on the violin and piano of which instruments he is a master In the course of the entertainment Prof Hubner will favor the audience with Paganini's composition "Carnival de Venice" on the violin and Home Sweet Home with variations on the piano Mrs J A Cruzan will sing a vocal solo Magnetic Waltz Mrs David Powell will also render a vocal solo Mrs D F Smith will favor the audience with a dramatic reading and Mr Wm Thompson will execute a cornet solo Prof J H Brenner will preside at the piano Reserved seats can be obtained at Morse s

ROBERT MATINEE LETTA —The fourth matinee recital by the pupils of the Oregon Conservatory of Music given at the Handel and Haydn hall yesterday proved to all present a very enjoyable musical treat The programme has already been published in these columns and the names of the participants. The various selections whether vocal or instrumental were rendered well—creditable to the performers and quite satisfactory to the audience Those worthy of special mention were piano solo and Valse by Misses Clarke and Waltz piano solo Musical Rockets by Miss L B song Waltz by Miss Cora Packard solo by Miss J B Wyatt piano the dieuse by Miss Elven and Mr Vinton vocal solo Waiting by Mrs J M ten Brook violin solo by Prof J. H. Brenner The two gems of the performance were the instrumental trio Schubert's Serenade by Miss Annie Foster Prof Brenner and Mr Vinton and the vocal duet Rigoletto by Miss Cora Packard and Mr Kinross The attendance was not as large as was expected—certainly not as large as the merits of the entertainment deserved Heretofore these recitals have been free to the public To prevent a jam and to meet the necessary expenses incurred Mr Kinross concluded to charge a nominal admission fee—25 cents However the patronage was hardly sufficient to encourage Mr Kinross in giving other recitals It is to be hoped that the public will respond with a more liberal hand at the next matinee

THE BENEFIT —A fair audience was present last evening on the occasion of the benefit tendered Mr George D Chaplin A very interesting bill was rendered consisting of the first act of Pinafore by the juvenile company a solo by Mr Kinross duet by Mr Kinross and Mr Franklin acrobatic exercises by Mr L Brenckle recitation by Mrs. Kate McLennan a recitation by the remarkable child elocutionist Miss Ella O'Connor and sketches by Mr John Maguire

THE STEAMSHIP COLUMBIA

The Scientific American May 22d contains an excellent engraving of the new steamship Columbia now on her passage to the Columbia river It has also cuts showing how the four Edison machines are arranged and of one of the elegant staterooms with the berths folded away similar to those of a Pullman palace car thus affording a cosy little room where one may enjoy the comforts or discomforts of a sea voyage in seclusion Cuts descriptive of the electric lamps as used for head lights saloon and stateroom are also given. The lamp fixtures in the saloons is of same form as those used for oil lamps, and by some ingenious mechanical contrivance they are adapted to either the electric or oil lamps, so that should the electric lamp in any way fail the oil lamps may be immediately substituted Some idea of the power of the great head light may be obtained from the statement that when the vessel lay at New York the light when directed across the East river illuminated the buildings in Brooklyn almost as brightly as sunlight. On her way to Astoria she will coal at Rio Janeiro and while there will be exhibited to the emperor Dom Pedro, who takes an especial interest in the progress of electric lighting

THE ERA OF PROGRESS.

The Railroad Enterprises of the Oregon Railway and Navigation Company for this and Next Year

A LINE FROM PORTLAND TO THE DALLES

The Grand Ronde Powder River and Palouse Countries to be Ramified

About twelve years ago the first screech of a locomotive was heard in Oregon and before that time the old residents only expected that their children or their children's children would witness the realization of their dreams when the iron horse would go cavorting over our plains and fertile valleys. But wonderful changes have taken place until now and before many years shall have elapsed we shall have the northwestern state interlaced with a network of railroads equal in extent and number to those of a most any other state in the union The Oregon Railway and Navigation Company but recently became identified as a company with the railroad interests of the northwest since then it first came into possession of the large properties it then had there has been no sort of apathy in carrying out the purposes of giving the most complete railway facilities to all sections the products of which must find their way to the markets of the world through the gateway at the mouth of the Columbia

Mr Villard since his arrival here not quite a month ago has visited many sections of eastern Oregon and Washington territory in company with Mr H Thielsen chief engineer of the O R & N Co and has determined to build with all possible dispatch branch railroads through those sections tributary to the Columbia and Snake rivers whose agricultural developments now demand them and within two years to open up millions of acres now unproductive because of the lack of transportation facilities.

An OREGONIAN reporter interviewed Mr Thielsen last night and received from him the following information concerning projected lines It will be read with interest not only by the inhabitants of the localities to be directly benefited but by the people of the entire northwest coast

Work on the Texas Ferry division will be commenced as soon as laborers can be spared on the Wallula and Celilo division Two parties of well diggers are now sinking wells where necessary and they are being made at Texas Ferry The road will take a northeasterly direction through Alkali flat for twelve miles then turn and run easterly north up Willow springs pass on the head of Willow creek over the summit Union flat and end for the present near Warner's eighteen miles due west of Colfax This much of the road will be built this season and will have trains running before Jan 1 1881

Five surveying parties will be put in the field within a week to locate the following lines The tents instruments, etc have already been sent to the front.

Two parties will make the final location for a route from Portland to The Dalles Preliminary lines were run early this spring In order to facilitate the work one party will start at The Dalles and come west while the other will start here and work east It is expected that the work on the Wallula & Celilo division will be done by Aug 15 and after that date all the available workmen will be put at the tunnels and heavy rock work on the Portland division Much of this work is of such a heavy character that much labor must be performed this year in order to have the road completed to Portland in time to move next year's crops. There will be three tunnels—two between The Dalles and the Cascades and one between here and the Cascades each 300 feet long.

A third party will run a preliminary line commencing at a point on the Columbia about six miles below Umatilla running southeast to the Umatilla reservation thence east through the reservation thence southeast to La Grande thence through the Powder river country to Baker City. Another preliminary line will be run commencing a few miles further down the river, running southeast along the western and southern boundaries of the reservation over the Blue mountains to La Grande and to Baker City as above. It is not at all certain that a practical route can be found over the Blue mountains In case of a failure to find the desired pass a road will be built from the present terminus of the Walla Walla and Blue mountain road to the Grand Ronde valley via Summerville At any rate the Grand Ronde and Powder river countries will have a railroad within two years.

Another party will relocate the line from Walla Walla to Grange City with one branch running up Touchet river to Dayton about 18 miles and another up the Pataha and Tukannon rivers about 40 miles

The fifth party will continue surveys from Warner's this year's terminus of the Texas Ferry road, through the Palouse country two preliminary lines have been run from Warners one north through Rebel flat and northeast and east through the Cottonwood country The other southeast to the Idaho line following the direction of Snake river and 6 to 10 miles from it. These lines were run because they were the natural passes The company desires to tap the heart of the Palouse country The two routes just described will not accomplish this. The southeastern line will not be necessary as the section through which it runs is within easy hauling distance of Snake river which will be navigable between Lewiston and Texas ferry at least ten months in the year From Texas ferry there will be an outlet by rail via Walla Walla Thus the difficult and dangerous rapids of Snake river are avoided The surveying party has been instructed if possible to find a route from Warner's east to Colfax. If a practical line can be located to Colfax two routes will be established from there one northeast, and one southeast to the Idaho boundary—thus giving outlets to the entire Palouse country

THE SPIRIT'S SALUTE.

From Goethe.

On yonder castle, tall and gray,
The mighty hero's spirit stands.
A ship goes by—her wings are spread
He speeds her on to other lands.

"Behold what strength these sinews held!
This changeless heart, how brave and free!
What knightly marrow filled these bones!
How smiled the glowing cup for me!

To battle half of life I gave,
And half in quiet peace was passed,
O ship with living men, sail on—
The tranquil haven reach at last!"

JUNIUS BRUTUS AND THE JUDGES AGAIN.

Criticism of Rulers.

To Judges Kelly and Prim, Sirs: When you deny the right of free criticism of our rulers in the press, do you realize that you violate the noblest principles and traditions of the democratic party? Are you aware that it was upon this issue the democracy first went into power in America? Do you know that its championship placed Thomas Jefferson in the presidential chair? And have you never learned that the denial of this most valuable right of a free people sunk the old federal party into oblivion for twenty years only to be revived under another name? Or are you ignorant of these proud facts of democratic history? Our own state constitution which has preserved as a palladium of liberty that which our democratic forefathers established as the great unwritten law of free America? Were you mere "ciphers" and blind instruments when Judge Deady, L. F. Grover, Delazon Smith, S. F. Chadwick, I. R. Moores, Enoch Hoult, Geo. H. Williams, David Logan, Jesse Applegate, E. D. Shattuck, John Kelsay, Cyrus Olney and other bright intellects of Oregon were placing this noble heritage in our fundamental law.

Why, noble sirs, when the alien and sedition laws were passed, in 1798, by a federalist congress for the purpose of repressing free criticism of official magnates, the democracy was at a very low ebb and contending against very great odds. All three departments of the federal government—the executive, legislative and judicial—were decidedly against them, with all the power and influence of public patronage. The legislatures of all the states, except Virginia and Kentucky, were against them; and 180 of the newspapers then published in the United States were enlisted, by preference or patronage, on the federalist side, while only about twenty advocated the faith you pretend to hold dear. Citizens were arrested, tried and convicted by the courts before packed juries for their bold utterances in the press about their highest rulers, and sentenced to pay heavy fines and to languish in jail. But the people arose in their majesty, under the leadership of the immortal Jefferson, and, turning their faces against the advocates of this despotic tyranny, put the democracy into power against all these odds. The right of free criticism in the press of the highest rulers thus became part of the great unwritten law of the American union, although not incorporated in the federal constitution. Mr. Jefferson embalmed this invaluable right in the creed of our party by incorporating it in his inaugural address. He says, in the conclusion of his summing up of the true principles of our government: "The diffusion of information, and the arraignment of all abuses at the bar of public reason; freedom of religion; freedom of the press; freedom of person under the protection of the habeas corpus; and trials by juries impartially selected—these principles form the bright constellation which has gone before us, and guided our steps through an age of revolution and reformation. The wisdom of our sages and the blood of our heroes have been devoted to their attainment. They should be the creed of our political faith—the text of civil instruction—the touchstone by which to try the services of those we trust; and, should we wander from them in moments of error or alarm, let us hasten to retrace our steps, and to regain the road which alone leads to peace, liberty and safety."

Upon what principle then do you claim to be democrats and ask democratic support when you declare to the people of Oregon that if you are elected you will visit on me still more signal punishment, even to the destruction of my source of livelihood, for asserting this right to which democracy owes its existence and its eighty years lease of life? Could our party survive your election on such an issue? Your election on that issue would destroy that democratic principle and create a supreme power in Oregon exempt from criticism. Yet this is the sole issue on which you are running. It is unconstitutional and undemocratic, and no true democrat can vote for you upon it. You are manifestly unworthy of election to the solemn trust of supreme judges. It is said of Mr. Jefferson that in his youth "he investigated the sources of law, the origin of liberty and the gradual establishment of equal rights, extending his researches into remote antiquity, and becoming one of the most accomplished young men of his time." You, sirs, it seems have either not even learned what he garnered for our use, or are mindless of your country's history and our party's glory.

Very respectfully, SIDNEY DELL.

How "Tom Jones" was Sold.

[From Galignani.]

We are told of Fielding's "Tom Jones" that when the work was completed the author, "being at the time hard pressed for money, took it to a second-rate publisher, with the view of selling it for what it would fetch at the moment. He left it with the bookseller, and called upon him next day for his decision. The publisher hesitated and requested another day for consideration, and at parting Fielding offered him the manuscript for £25. On his way home Fielding met Thomson, the poet, whom he told of the negotiation for the sale of the manuscript, when Thomson, knowing the high merit of the work, conjured him to be off the bargain, and offered to find a better purchaser. Next morning Fielding hastened to his appointment with as much apprehension lest the bookseller should keep to his bargain as he had felt the day before lest he should altogether decline it. To the author's great joy the ignorant trafficker in literature declined and returned the manuscript to Fielding.

He next set off with a light heart to his friend Thomson; and the novelist and the poet then went to Andrew Millar, the great publisher of the day. Mr. Millar, as was his practice with works of light reading, handed the manuscript to his wife, who, having read it, advised him by no means to let it slip through his fingers. Millar now invited the two friends to meet him at a coffee house in the Strand, where, after dinner, the bookseller, with great caution, offered Fielding two hundred pounds for the manuscript. The novelist was amazed at the largeness of the offer. 'Then, my good sir,' said he, recovering himself from this unexpected stroke of good fortune, 'give me your hand—the book is yours; and waiter,' continued he, 'bring a couple of bottles of your best port.' Before Millar died, he had cleared eighteen thousand pounds by 'Tom Jones,' out of which he generously made Fielding various presents, to the amount of two thousand pounds; and, when he died, he bequeathed a handsome legacy to each of Fielding's sons."

King of the Blood

Cures all Scrofulous affections and disorders resulting from Impurity of the blood. It is needless to specify all, as the sufferer can usually perceive their cause; but Salt Rheum, Pimples, Ulcers, Tumors, Goitre, Swellings, &c., are the most common, as well as many affections of the Heart, Head, Liver and Stomach.

SCROFULA.

Wonderful Cure of Blindness.

D. RANSOM, SON & Co.: For the benefit of all troubled with Scrofula or Impure Blood in their systems, I hereby recommend King of the Blood. I have been troubled with Scrofula for the past ten years, which so affected my eyes that I was completely blind for six months. I was recommended to try King of the Blood, which has proved a great blessing to me, as it has completely cured me, and I cheerfully recommend it to all troubled as I have been.

Yours truly,
MRS. S. WEATHERLOW, [illegible], N. Y.

45 Years Before the Public.
THE GENUINE
DR. C. McLANE'S
CELEBRATED
FOR THE CURE OF
Hepatitis, or Liver Complaint,
DYSPEPSIA AND SICK HEADACHE

Symptoms of a Diseased Liver.

PAIN in the right side, under the edge of the ribs, increases on pressure; sometimes the pain is in the left side; the patient is rarely able to lie on the left side; sometimes the pain is felt under the shoulder blade, and it frequently extends to the top of the shoulder, and is sometimes mistaken for rheumatism in the arm. The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness; the bowels in general are costive, sometimes alternative with lax; the head is troubled with pain accompanied with a dull, heavy sensation in the back part. There is generally a considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done. A slight, dry cough is sometimes an attendant. The patient complains of weariness and debility; he is easily startled, his feet are cold or burning, and he complains of a prickly sensation of the skin; his spirits are low; and although he is satisfied that exercise would be beneficial to him, yet he can scarcely summon up fortitude enough to try it. In fact, he distrusts every remedy. Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred where few of them existed, yet examination of the body, after death, has shown the LIVER to have been extensively deranged.

AGUE AND FEVER.

DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, IN CASES OF AGUE AND FEVER, when taken with Quinine, are productive of the most happy results. No better cathartic can be used, preparatory to, or after taking Quinine. We would advise all who are afflicted with this disease to give them a FAIR TRIAL.

For all bilious derangements, and as a simple purgative, they are unequaled.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.

The genuine are never sugar coated.

Every box has a red wax seal on the lid, with the impression DR. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS.

The genuine McLANE'S LIVER PILLS bear the signatures of C. McLANE and FLEMING BROS on the wrappers.

Insist upon having the genuine DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, prepared by Fleming Bros., of Pittsburgh, Pa., the market being full of imitations of the name McLane, spelled differently but same pronunciation.

DR. PAUL M. BRENAN
The Most Successful Physician on the Pacific Coast,
IN THE TREATMENT OF ALL
CHRONIC AND DIFFICULT DISEASES

DR. BRENAN WILL GUARANTEE TO CURE any form of disease of the generative organs or private disease.

He has become an expert in the treatment of disease, weakness and derangement of the reproductive organs of both male and female, including diseases caused by the

FOLLIES OF YOUTH,

Such as SPERMATORRHEA or SEMINAL WEAKNESS, LOSS OF PERFECT VITALITY. Nearly two-thirds of all the Chronic Diseases spring either directly or indirectly from some derangement of the sexual system, and yet the subject is neglected by the majority of the Medical Profession.

I know that persons who are unfortunate enough to be afflicted by any form of sexual disease have a delicacy in calling upon the proper physician in time, from a sense of modesty and sometimes from ignorance, and put off their cases [illegible] until their constitutions become corrupted, their organization broken down and their hopes of health, happiness [illegible] death becomes a welcome messenger to carry them out of their miserable existence.

Everything strictly confidential under all circumstances.

I [illegible] perfectly restored.

Catarrh, Bronchitis, Throat Disease, Skin Diseases, Rheumatism, Kidney Complaint and all Diseases of the Eye and Ear, Stomach and Bladder [illegible] cure without fail.

Consultation Free, and a list of printed questions sent to those living at a distance who cannot consult him personally. Enclose postage stamp for list.

Oregon Furniture Manufacturing Co.
SAM. LOWENSTEIN, Pres't. WM. KAPUS, Secretary.

Availing itself of the Great Lumber Resources of this State, and using the best and most improved machinery, this Company is enabled not only to successfully compete with California and Eastern factories, but to offer to the public a better class of Furniture than has ever been imported from abroad at greatly reduced prices.

The Company has made the Carpet Business
In all its branches a specialty, and its warerooms are crowded with the very latest designs in Body Tapestry, Wool and Ingrain Carpets that foreign and domestic looms have produced.

Orders from the Country promptly attended to and photographs, designs and prices furnished on application.
